Encyclopedia on Early Childhood

(<http://earlyoncenter.org/resource.php?ID=201>)

A project by the Centre of Excellence for Early Childhood Development and the Strategic Knowledge Cluster on Early Child Development. The Encyclopedia is a comprehensive, reliable and easy-to-use reference tool, a unique and free resource devoted to promoting accessibility and knowledge transfer of the best knowledge on early childhood development. Informational sheets, videos, and latest news on the most up-to-date scientific knowledge on early childhood development, from conception to age five.

Possibilities Video Series

(<http://earlyoncenter.org/resource.php?ID=202>)

Wayne State University's Developmental Disabilities Institute has created the video series Possibilities. Each video focuses on the lives and accomplishments of individuals with developmental and intellectual disabilities. Each 4-7minute video highlights the journeys of different individuals, along with their family and friends, and illustrates the lives possible for all people as they mature, become independent, and pursue their life's dreams and goals. A companion discussion guide is also available to accompany the videos.
